

Rewarding those who go the extra mile in safety, customer and delivery

Nominations can now be made relating to all three Highways England imperatives. Please let us know how you and other team members are pushing the boundaries of excellence. Examples of good practice and good behaviours are below:

Approved nominations receive a £25
shopping voucher

Safety

Demonstrating leadership attributes by stopping work because of a safety concern.
Making a positive intervention to rectify or improve site safety.

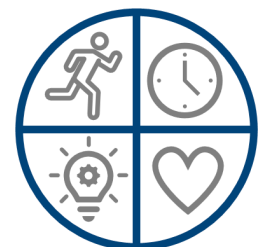

Customer

Recognising that our activities will impact local communities and proactively taking steps to minimise noise, vibration, light or dust.
A reactive response to road users in distress on the network.

Delivery

Collaborative behaviours in working with delivery partners; delivering well with our Carnell values in mind: Passionate, Reliable, Responsive, Innovative.
Receiving praise from the client for going above and beyond.

Send your nominations to safety@carnellgroup.co.uk or tell your manager